UPHOLDS RIGHT TO RUN OPEN SHOP

A Sweeping Injunction Granted by an Ohio Court.

(By Associated Press.)

(By Associated Press.)

HAMILTON, O., Oct. 13.—Judge Belden to-day granted one of the most sweeping injunctions ever issued by an Ohio court. It was directed against the Typographical and the Hamilton Cooperative Trades and Labor Council, and the Nonparell Printing Company, publishers of the county trade organization.

The defendants are enjoined from continuing a boycott on the Republican-News or firms which advertize in it, and is ordered that interference of every sort with the company's business must stop. The court said the Constitution gave a union company the right to employ whomsoever they saw fit.

The boycott was to force the plaintiff to unionize and abandon its "open shop" policy.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 12.—A motion was entered in the Supreme Court of the United States to-day in the case of Czarn kow. Macdougali and Company vs. Collector Bidwell, of New York, to exsign the hearing to a date subsequent to November 1st. The case involves the validity of the act of 190 providing for the collection of du less impused upon goods chipped into the United States from Porto R co and opens up the entire insular question. The specific motive of the action is to recover 18,500 duty paid on Porto Rican supart. The case is on the early call and unless eass, ged the hearing will take place within the next few days.

RESCUE OF DIPPOLD ATTEMPTED BY MOB

(By Associated Press.)

BERLIN, Oct. 18.—A number of wouldbe lynchers at Bamberg surrounded the carriage in which guards were taking Andreas Dippold to the penitentiary to begin his sontence of eight years for whipping to death Heinz Koch, son of the director of the Deutszch Bank.

The mob almost succeeded in getting possession of Dippold, when the guards fixed bayonets and drove them off. Dippold, who was young Koch's tutor, was struck in the back by a piece of metal.

COMRADE PARKER'S CASE NOT FINISHED

Investigation of Assault on Commandant Peay. of Sol-

The Executive Committee of the Soldiers' Home Jid hot conclude their inves-tigation of the assault of Comrade W. M. Parker on Commandant A. C. Peay, of Home, on Monday morning. While the nembers of the committee are throwing

Home, on Monday morning. While the members of the committee are throwing around the investigation the atmosphere of secrecy, it was learned from one member of the body that the taking of evidence in the case would be resumed this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The committee was in session for two hours and a half yesterday, meeting at 5 in the afternoon and rising at 7:30 o'clock. No one but members of the committee and the witness being examined were allowed in the board room.

The first member of the committee seen after meeting said that he was not allowed to give out anything of what occurred or was decided, but that it would be announced at the breakfast table at the Home this morning. The disturbance occurred Monday morning at the corresponding hour.

The next member said these little courtmartials at the Home were private affairs, and nothing about what was done would be given out at all. He was told that the belief was that the committee had decided to send Comrade Parker away from the Home. He would not deny it, nor affirm it. He was asked to deny it, but would not.

Still another member was seen, and he stated that the committee would not give out anything until the hearing was on-

Of the Murdered Man.

A cloud of mystery still hangs over the Scott murder case.
Following up what they believed were good tips, the Chief of Police and the Commonwealth's attorney, requested the presence of the members of the Scott family in the Chief's office yesterday afternoon.

They responded to the request, and for over two hours they were carefully examined as to what they knew about the killing. Allen and Tyler Scott and the three young ladies were closely questioned, but they did not vary the slightest from their story as told before the coroner's jury, and the police department is as much in the dark as it ever was.

The report that the pistol used in the killing had been located is without foundation. It has not been located, nor have the police a clue as to where it is, or who had it.

ed, but they did not vary the slightest from their story as told before the coroner's jury, and the police department is as much in the dark as it ever was.

The report that the pistol used in the killing had been located is without foundation. It has not been located, nor have the police a clue as to where it is, or who had it.

Several letters have been received by Major Howard in reference to the murder, but none of them have contained information sufficient to supply the missing clue.

The unanimous expression of the children of the murdered man was that they did not know who killed their father, and that they would give all they possess to locate the murderer.
